

EDII receives 'Centre of Excellence' honour

Union Minister V Muraleedharan Inaugurated the Rwanda-India Entrepreneurship Development Centre in Rwanda, set up by EDII

In great news for the Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India (EDII), the institute has been recognised as a 'Centre of Excellence' (CoE) by the Government of India in the field of skilling ecosystem in the country. An official Gazette Notification has been issued by the Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE) in this regard, reads a statement from the institute, which added that the "recognition shall be initially valid for five years and comes following thorough scrutiny of the institute on several parameters by the ministry".

EDII's recognition as CoE comes for being a "one-stop national resource centre working in collaborative mode with industry, academia and governments to impart training and competencies to ensure enhanced incidences of new enterprise creation and employability, address emerging skill gaps, and undertake research leading to interventions that match industry needs". AM
