

PUBLICATION NAME :	The Times of India
EDITION :	Lucknow
DATE :	12/03/2022
PAGE :

EDII's five-day entrepreneurship training for UP & MP professors

Ahmedabad: A five-day free entrepreneurship training programme was organized by EDII for 24 professors of five universities from Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh & Chhattisgarh.

Dr Sunil Shukla, director general, EDII, Ahmedabad, stressed on the importance of entrepreneurship training, saying, "Entrepreneurship is now a way of life. It has to be imbibed in education in a manner that every child considers it as natural as any other career option. If the country is marching on the path of self-reliance, then this is the most potent option. Students need to understand the power of entrepreneurship."

Dr. Amit Kumar Dwivedi, in-charge of the Department of Policy Advocacy and Research at EDII, Ahmedabad, said that this programme is being undertaken to make professors aware about the dynamics associated with the discipline of entrepreneurship. During the programme, 24 participants from four universities of Uttar Pradesh and 1 university of Madhya Pradesh, 5 professors from Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam Technical University, Lucknow, 6 from Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur, 4 from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel University of Agriculture and Technology, Meerut, 4 from Madan Mohan Malaviya Technological University, Gorakhpur and 5 from Guru Ghasidas University, Bilaspur, Chhattisgarh were trained on various aspects of entrepreneurship course design and implementation. TNN