EDII, higher edu dept sign MoU

The Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India (EDII) has entered into a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with the higher education department to collaborate on the implementation of the student entrepreneurship policy. Sunil Shukla, the director-general of EDII, and Parimal Pandya, the director of higher education, formalized the MoU in the presence of the higher education minister Rushikesh Patel and principal secretary (higher and technical education) Mukesh Kumar. Under the terms of the MoU, EDII will undertake the training of 500 nodal officers who will serve as resource persons.
